

BEDIL: SELECTED POEMS Translation & Introduction by Paul Smith Mirza Abdul-Qader Bedil (1644-1721) is one of the most respected poets from Afghanistan. In the early 17th century, his family moved from Balkh to India, to live under the Mughul dynasty. He was born and educated near Patna. In his later life he spent time travelling and visiting ancestral lands. His writings in Persian are extensive, being one of the creators of the "Indian style". Bedil's 16 books of poetry contain nearly 147,000 couplets. With Ghalib he is considered a master of the complicated "Indian Style" of the ghazal. He had complicated views on the nature of God, heavily influenced by the Sufis. The rhyme-structure has been kept and the meaning of these beautiful, mystical poems.
